

Information Systems Steering Committee

TERMS OF REFERENCE

The Information Systems Steering Committee (ISSC) provides direction for overarching information systems policies, strategies, stewardship, and technology investments.

As stewards of the information systems process, the ISSC guides the evolution of technology solutions through collaboration with key institutional stakeholders, prioritization of technology plan strategic initiatives and oversight of its sub-committees.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provide guidance and endorsement of the USask Technology Plan 2025.
- Provide direction to the vision, strategy, policies, and initiatives that promote and encourage the efficiency, effectiveness, and experience of the university community.
- Using strategic alignment and acceptable levels of risk as key criteria, assist with prioritization and decision making for technology investments.
- Facilitate information sharing between the committee, other key senior level university committees, peers, and technology partners.
